Here's a pretty miss who wants to follow in her great grandfather's footsteps in an attempt to cross above Niagara Falls on a wire. She is Josephine Beronini, 21, who has been a member of the Beronini troupe of high-wire artists since she was four, and she hopes to commemorate the 75th anniversary of her grandfather's wire crossing of the great cataract in 1871 by repeating the performance this year. She has applied to both the United States and Canadian governments for permission.

Democrats Of County Again Select Shaw

County Committee Has Harmonious Annual Meeting Saturday Afternoon

For the seventh consecutive time John B. Shaw was named chairman of Lawrence County Democratic Committee Saturday afternoon in the Court House when the county committee held its biennial organization meeting. And let this be said of the meeting, it was quiet, it was harmonious, it was speedy, which sets a new record of some kind or another for the Democratic party here.

The county committee meeting opened at 2 o'clock and finished at 3 with everything completed. The roll was called, nominations were made, the election was held and the usual urgings as to the fall election heard.

Of the 198 county committee men and women provided for by law, 126 were present.

Meeting Opened

At 2 o'clock Chairman Shaw opened the meeting and Secretary Dominick Clifton called the roll. Nominations were in order and

May Agree On Compromise Of Draft Measure

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(INS)—House draft bill conferees, it was learned today, will accept a compromise which makes certain that 18 and 19-year-olds are given a "1-2" priority on deferment from induction.

Two of the House conferees most opposed to drafting teen-agers—Reps. May (D) Ky., and Brooks (D) La.—were understood to be ready to agree to a further modification of the pending Gurney-Sparkman compromise.

May, chairman of the House Military committee, regards a modification suggested by Sen. Johnson (D) Cal., as the "basis" of an acceptable compromise. Johnson's proposal provides that 19-year-olds may not be drafted until those 20 or older have been taken, and that those 18 could not be inducted until the pool of 19-year-olds was exhausted.

Possible Compromise

Brooks viewed the Johnson plan as a "possible" compromise but said he believed a unanimous decision might be more likely if Congress

Communists In France Urging Gouin Renaming

PARIS, June 17.—(INS)—The Communist party of France urged today the re-election of Socialist Leader Felix Gouin as president, or premier, in the next coalition government.

The reds denounced the Popular Republicans (MRP) and ignored the fact of their recent electoral victory. This was interpreted by French political observers as a "hint" that the Communists would not support a Popular Republican president.

Without Communist backing, the middle-road Republicans will not be able to elect their candidate, Foreign Minister Georges Bidault. This was expected to throw the top political post to the Socialists as a compromise measure, although the Socialists lost ground in the recent elections.

Two Boys Drown In Attempting To Save Young Girl

BELLE VERNON, Pa., June 17.—(INS)—This little community today mourned the death of two high school students who drowned while attempting to save a girl companion when their canoe capsized on the Monongahela river near Belle Vernon.

The girl, Anna Seifchuck, 17, was rescued by volunteer firemen after she clung to the side of the overturned canoe while passersby rushed for help.

The bodies of the victims—Steve Toth and John Teano, both 15—were recovered several hours later. The girl was reported in fair condition in the Charleroi-Monesson hospital.

ENGINEER KILLED AT MEDINA, OHIO

MEDINA, O., June 17.—(INS)—State highway patrolmen at Medina reported today that the engineer of an Erie Railroad freight train was killed when a washed out bridge derailed the train last night near Medina.

The engineer was tentatively identified only as Flickinger.

The engine and 23 cars were reported demolished in the wreck, which occurred three miles south of Friendsville and about 16 miles from Medina.

Senate Probe Of Black-Jackson Feud Not Likely

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(INS)—The Jackson-Black feud officially came before the senate judiciary committee today but the group was expected to sidetrack proposals for a senate investigation.

Sen. McCarran (D) Nev., committee chairman, planned to submit the Jackson charges to his committee with the firm recommendation that no action whatsoever be taken at this time.

The group was holding its first regular meeting since Justice Robert H. Jackson accused Justice Hugo L. Black of participating in a decision on a case in which Black's former law partner was counsel for the winning side.

Refuses To Comment

McCarran has refused to comment in any way on the Jackson statement. He has advised the senate to guard against prejudicing its constitutional function as a court of impeachment by expressing any opinions while the possibility of impeachment proceedings is still open.

The house is the body in which impeachment proceedings must be initiated. The house judiciary committee has already discussed the Jackson charges and found no basis for any such drastic action. The group has, however, left the door open for further study, with the possibility it may undertake an informal inquiry to get the whole story behind Jackson's blast against Black.

JACK BOLES DIES OF INJURIES SUSTAINED IN 20 FOOT DROP FROM PORCH

FALL OCCURS IN SCUFFLE ON PORCH

Death stalked an uninvited guest into a birthday observance at 30 East Street at six o'clock Saturday evening. Jack Boles, 71, the celebrant, is dead, and Herman Robertson, about 52, a guest, is held in the city jail. Police allege that Boles sustained fatal injuries and fell from a rear second floor balcony, a distance of 20 feet, during a quarrel. Both the dead man and prisoner are married.

According to signed statements, Boles and Robertson went to the Produce Street liquor store Saturday where whiskey and wine for the birthday celebration were obtained. After the party which was attended by several persons, in Boles apartment, had been under way for some time, an argument arose between Boles and Robertson. Robertson

Ten Bridges In Palestine Are Blasted

Report New Wave Of Terrorism Has Developed In Holy Land

JERUSALEM, June 17.—(INS)—Jewish dynamiters blasted at least 10 bridges in Palestine today and assaulted police outposts with tommygun fire and bombs.

British police and troop units immediately swung into action to halt the greatest wave of terrorism ever to hit the Holy Land.

Marauding bands not only set off explosives to cripple vital transportation links—they planted road mines on bridge approaches to make repair efforts hazardous work.

Jordan Spans Blasted

Eight spans across the River Jordan, linking Palestine and Trans-Jordan, were first attacked. Four of them carried rail traffic, the others were opened to vehicles. They provided Trans-Jordan's only connection with the western world.

A road bridge on the frontier between Palestine and Lebanon was crippled, and three spans along the southern shores of the Sea of Galilee were wrecked. Rail bridges near Gaza also were bombed.

British officials said two Jews were killed in an attack on a police post on the railway bridge at Zib Village, north of Haifa.

The Allenby bridge, which spans the Jordan two miles from historic Jericho, was blown up after a group

U. N. Council To Take Up Problem Of Spain Again

NEW YORK, June 17.—(INS)—The United Nations Security Council will reconvene this afternoon in a renewed effort to resolve the problem of Franco Spain but the unknown attitudes of Britain and Russia placed the issue in doubt.

Diplomatic circles had assumed Britain would approve the diluted report of the council's sub-committee on Spain. This provided that the council would either recommend a diplomatic break with Spain if Franco was still in power when the general assembly met in September, or other action the assembly considered expedient.

However, the British delegate, Sir Alexander Cadogan, was instructed by his government on the week-end to re-examine the authority of the UN charter for such a course.

Sources close to the British diplomat said he might ultimately approve referring the matter to the assembly if a convincing case can be argued that this would not imply a violation of Article Two of the charter.

This guarantees all nations against interference in international affairs by any member of the United Nations.

No expression of attitude has been forthcoming from Russia since its delegate, Andrei A. Gromyko, indirectly warned the council last Thursday that he might veto the proposal.

Primary Elections In Two States In New England Area

BOSTON, June 17.—(INS)—One of the bitterest contests in Massachusetts political history, involving Sen. David L. Walcott (D) and Lt. Col. Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., was forecast today on the election primaries.

Walsh, chairman of the Senate naval affairs committee, and Lodge, who resigned his Senate seat to enter the service, are unopposed for nomination. They will meet in the final election in November.

The 400,000 veterans returned from service are expected to swell the number of voters, but the greater part of the electorate was apathetic because of the absence of contests for most major offices.

Portland, Me., June 17.—A light vote was expected in today's statewide primaries with Republican and Democratic nominations for governor the only contests. Gov. Horace A. Hildreth is seeking a second term on the GOP ticket and is opposed by the nomination by Roy L. Fernald, war veteran and state senator. Fernald and Clark are fighting for the Democratic nomination.

Jackson To Resign As Prosecutor In German War Trials

By GEORGE HERALD (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

NUERNBERG, June 17.—Associate Supreme Court Justice Robert H. Jackson disclosed today he will resign as chief prosecutor of the Nazi war crimes trial and return to Washington.

He indicated that he would press for a congressional investigation of the United States Supreme Court. Jackson last week cabled an unprecedented blast to the Senate judiciary committee involving his fellow Justice Hugo Black. He was asked whether he felt that the supreme court could operate with two men whose opinions are as divergent as his own and those of Black's. Jackson replied: "I don't want to answer that for publication."

To Leave Next Month

He told International News Service he intends to leave Nuernberg next month before the completion of the trials. He feels his presence is "unnecessary for the case against the Nazi organizations."

War Potential Of Germany Is To Be Smashed

LONDON, June 17.—(INS)—Radio Moscow declared today the Big Four powers aim to smash Germany's war potential as "the only way to deal with the Reich."

The broadcast warned that Britain's proposal for a unified federal Germany would not guarantee the world security from the forces of Prussian imperialism. It added: "Under the wing of international reaction, Fascist elements can easily rise again and constitute a threat to peace even if Germany is rigidly federalized."

"The real solution lies in following the road firmly laid down during the war by the Allied powers—the demilitarization of Germany, the destruction of its war equipment, general staff, economic and war potential."

"Only such a policy, based on joint decisions of the Allied powers and implemented with sufficient firmness can ensure peace and world security."

Durants Are Going Back To Germany

Pair Connected To Jewel Robbery Being Flown Back To Germany

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(INS)—Col. Jack W. Durant and his WAC bride, the former Capt. Kathleen B. Nash, who allegedly confessed to theft of the fabulous Kronberg jewels were being flown back to Germany today at the request of Gen. Joseph T. McNarney of the European theater of operations.

The war department announced that the recently married couple, said to have taken the German crown gems from the Kronberg castle near Frankfurt, Germany, were whisked away from Washington in an ATC plane.

Accompanying the Durants were Col. A. C. Miller and Lt. Col. R. W. Pierce, of the Provost Marshal General's office and Wac Sgt. Elizabeth Devoung of Grand Rapids, Mich.

Durant, of Falls Church, Va., and his wife, a native of Hudson, Wis. were brought to Washington recently from Chicago where they were captured in the LaSalle hotel about 24 hours before the building was swept by fire.

Capt. Frank Bosworth, temporary counsel, for the Durants, charged that the arrangements for flying them back to Germany where they may stand trial, were made without his knowledge.

FORD EMPLOYEES RETURN TO WORK

DETROIT, June 17.—(INS)—Approximately 65,000 Ford Motor company employees returned to work today after a 40-day layoff.

Parts shortages and the coal strike caused the lay-off of 110,000 employees on May 8.

Minor Italian Questions Are First Taken Up

Controversial Issues Are Being Delayed For Later Consideration

HEAR HINTS OF RUSSIAN ACTIVITY (BULLETIN)

PARIS, June 17.—(INS)—The Big Four foreign ministers took up Italian economic questions today amid reports of Russian troops movements behind the Stettin-Trieste "iron curtain."

American delegation sources admitted hints of unexplained Red army moves in southeastern Germany and shifting in the direction of Yugoslavia.

But it is understood Secretary of State Byrnes is not taking these reports seriously.

Other American informants said that it is unclear whether the movement has political significance aimed possibly at influencing Big Four decisions on Trieste or is merely reports of a regrouping of Russian occupation forces for redeployment purposes.

Avoid Some Issues

In taking up Italian economic questions such as Allied property in Italy, Italian property in the United Nations, restitution of French railway equipment, and some reparations angles the foreign ministers were avoiding such controversial issues as Trieste and the Italian colonies.

Romanian treaty proposals worked out by deputies also were studied by the ministers.

Spokesmen for the U. S. group gave no official statement on Russia. (Continued on Page Two)

No Rationing Of Flour For Bread

Secretary Of Agriculture Says Administration Has Decided Against Move

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(INS)—Secretary of Agriculture Anderson disclosed today that the administration has decided against rationing flour for bread.

Anderson told International News Service that the OPA joined with him in the decision.

The secretary declared that more flour and bread would be available for domestic use after July 1 and expressed the belief that the situation would improve after that.

The decision not to ration flour or bread was reached as House and Senate conferees prepared to open deliberations tomorrow or Wednesday on the OPA extension bill.

Anderson said that beginning July 1 the amount of flour available for domestic use would be increased 10 per cent, from 75 to 85 per cent.

Anderson said this would permit bakers to produce more bread as they are now restricted to 75 per cent of their normal supplies of flour. He stated:

"We don't feel that the rationing of flour or bread will be necessary. We nor the OPA believe it will be necessary after July 1."

Arthur Mometer

The calendar says it's June and the calendar seldom lies, but it might be mistaken, I trow, at least when you look at the sky; it looks like April and acts the same, and as summertime comes on to gain the weather gets coy and like April, it seems, for most every day brings the rain. It may be July will be warm and August will bring us a drought, but the present is April in most every way, at least like April about. So the rains come and dampen the crops and the picnics are cancelled some more, but the temperature stays at about the same spot, for again it is seventy-four.

Boy Is Accused Of Attacking And Slaying Woman

Society Matron In Eastern Pennsylvania Victim Of Attack By 14-Year-Old Boy

LANGHORNE, Pa., June 17.—(INS)—A 14-year-old Negro boy who allegedly confessed attacking and then strangling a society matron faced arraignment today in Bucks county court.

Chief of Detectives Anthony Russo said the boy, Aaron Shelton, Jr., of Peach street, near Market, Philadelphia, will be charged with murder.

The victim was Mrs. Walter A. Shetland, 48, wife of a rubber company executive, of Langhorne Terrace.

According to the purported confession, the boy entered the Shetland house after mowing the lawn, hit Mrs. Shetland and tied her with cord. Then he allegedly attacked her.

Set House Afire

Police added that he told of returning to the house and freeing Mrs. Shetland. When she ran toward him with a poker he seized it from her and knocked her unconscious and then carried her to the cellar and set the house on fire.

Shelton, who will be fifteen next month, weighs 180 pounds and stands six feet tall. Bucks county authorities said the boy, a junior high school track star, has a juvenile court record in Philadelphia.

During the slaying, Shelton's father was mowing a garden on the estate. Detectives said he was not implicated.

The Shetlands have a son and daughter living in the Mayfair section of Philadelphia. They are Arnold E. Shetland, of 324 Decatur street, and Mrs. Betty E. Duffany, of 3502 Hartel street.

of 10 Jews fought a 30-minute battle against the police post on the bridge.

In the explosion, a frontier customs control building was also damaged.

Reports said the Jews later attacked a number of Bedouins near the Allenby bridge and stabbed one of them.

The Jordan separates the two countries during its course from the Sea of Galilee to the Dead Sea.

The British alerted military and police forces in a Palestine-wide drive to capture the suspected dynamiters.

The attacks on the river bridges preceded the scheduled visit of Palestine's high commissioner, Sir Alan G. Cunningham, to Trans-Jordan's capital of Amman where he planned to ratify an Anglo-Trans-Jordan treaty today.

Some sources said the Soviet maneuver has already led U. S. military leaders in Germany and northeast Italy to shift troop units as a precautionary move.

Loan Inducement

Authoritative sources revealed, meanwhile, that America has offered Russia a substantial loan as an inducement to make the current treaty talks a success.

American spokesmen pointed out that if the Russians cooperate enough during these meetings to permit a general peace conference to be summoned, the U. S. might take a favorable attitude toward granting a loan.

Little likelihood was seen for the loan's going through should the Soviets refuse to come to terms with the west on European postwar problems.

Conference circles were interested also in Moscow dispatches which reported for Soviet agency Tass as urging the U. S. and Britain to make the Paris conference a success by recognizing Yugoslav demands.

gross stipulates that 18-year-olds may be taken only if the supply of available men falls below a "fixed figure." Brooks suggested that the authority to draft 18-year-olds also be vested in the President, the secretaries of war and navy, or all three.

At the same time May proposed that Congress write into the draft extension bill a repeal of all existing industrial deferments based upon essentially to the "war effort."

War department spokesmen and other members of the House-Senate conference committee took the position that Congress automatically would be handled by regulations from selective service.

Johnson said flatly he would be opposed to writing any job deferment stipulations into the basic draft law. He and Sen. Thomas (D) Utah, Senate Military chairman, said that any change in the "basis" for deferment and local draft boards by regulation and local draft boards, that present procedure and machinery, including appeal boards, will continue under the selective service extension as now contemplated.

prosecute Nazi war-mongering organizations following the current trial of individual Germans.

Johnson said he decided last week to leave his post, although he originally intended to stay until the end of the trials.

In his charge against Justice Black, Jackson said that a Washington whispering-campaign against him was started during his absence abroad.

He was asked whether his statement to the congressional judiciary committee was intended to inspire investigations of the court by Congress. He replied:

"Yes. Doesn't the statement speak for itself?"

Jackson refused to reply to several leading questions which would have permitted him to make a conciliatory gesture toward Black. He left open the possibility of his own resignation from the supreme court.

He did not deny that he received President Truman's request to withdraw his statement, but did not wish to comment why he disregarded the president's suggestion to wait and discuss his grievance at a White House conference.

Jackson said he would be succeeded as war-crimes prosecutor by Brig. Gen. Telford Taylor.

XENA SINGER WEDS SHERMAN SAMUELS

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Singer of Reading, England, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Xena Singer, to Sherman Samuels, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice L. Samuels of Leasure avenue, this city.

The lovely ceremony was performed in the large dining room of the William Penn hotel Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock amidst a setting of palms and ferns, surrounded by a profusion of gladioli, lilies and roses. Rabbi Benjamin Lichter officiated, using the single ring service.

Preceding the ceremony, Barbara Edelstein, pianist of New Castle, provided the nuptial music and played "Because." She accompanied Mrs. Betty Smith White, who sang "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly." Miss Edelstein also played Mendelssohn's wedding march for the professional and the Lehigh wedding march by Wagner for the recessional.

The bride was given in marriage by the bridegroom's uncle, Joseph Rosenblatt, due to the absence of her father. For her wedding she wore a light sand gabardine ensemble with brown accessories, a small brown half-hat with brown veil and she carried a Bible, marked with an orchid, with streamers of stephanotis.

Miss Beverly Groden of New York City was the maid of honor.

Harvey Lewis of this city served as best man.

Supplementing the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served in the hotel to relatives and guests numbering 45, followed by an informal reception. The table was beautifully arranged with flowers and a wedding cake centered the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuels departed for Atlantic City for their wedding trip. Upon their return in a week they will reside at the Samuels residence, Leasure avenue, for the present.

Mrs. Samuels graduated from the Berkshire School of Finance in England and was affiliated with her father's clothing manufacturing business.

Mr. Samuels attended the University of Arizona and was graduated Saturday, June 15, from Grove City college. He will resume his studies at Grove City college for the summer months. He is a member of the Zeta Beta Tau and the Pi Gamma Mu. Mr. Samuels is a discharged veteran of the U. S. army and was stationed overseas in England for a year and a half, where he met his wife. She arrived in this country last week.

Motion pictures were taken during the ceremony and reception. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ikenn, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rosenblum and daughter Louise and Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Gross, Youngstown, and Mr. and Mrs. Max Groden and daughter Louise of Ellwood City.

JEAN YOUNG WED TO JOHN POTTER

Miss Jean Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Young, 1310 Highland avenue, became the bride of John O. Potter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Potter, 201 Hillcrest avenue, at 4:30 o'clock on Saturday, June 15, in the ceremonies in the chapel of Grove City college.

Dr. A. H. Leitch officiated in the single ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families of the young couple.

The bride wore a gray street-length dress with black accessories and a white orchid.

Miss Polly Butz served as maid of honor wearing a gown of blue with white accessories and a yellow corsage.

George Steck was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Potter left for a short honeymoon, after which the groom will resume his studies at Grove City college.

Mrs. Potter is a graduate of New Castle high school and attended Grove City college.

The groom was graduated from New Castle high school and is attending Grove City college after serving in the armed forces.

Rev. Robert C. Griswold officiated using the double ring ceremony. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in an organza gown with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. The bodice was encrusted and outlined with three rows of tiny crystal beads. Her net veil was caught at the crown with rosebuds. She carried gladioli and baby breath with streamers knotted with ferns.

Miss Frances Davenport served her sister as maid of honor wearing a pink net-over-satin gown and carried a colonial bouquet.

James Green served the groom as best man with Ned Davenport, of Washington, D. C., and Merle Dicks as ushers.

Removing The Stigma

The drab Pentagon office in Washington was transformed into a bewildering treasure display when the more than $1,500,000 worth of recovered royal jewels and priceless heirlooms of the German house of Hesse were exhibited before the blinking eyes of newsmen. Army officers were surprised when a reporter pointed to an unnoticed Nazi emblem of gold among all those jewels from out of the Victorian past.

A Nazi emblem lay there in the treasure trove of the Hohenzollerns. Then perhaps it was not from Hitler that this fabulous hoard was hidden in the deepest dungeon of ancient Kronberg castle in Frankfurt. Perhaps this little talisman was the token of royalty's secret smile on the Nazi hierarchy which was seeking again that world empire that had been the lost dream of the Kaisers. Perhaps that is why Kronberg castle had been spared plundering by the SS men only to fall prey to a theft that is a reproach and shame to the American Army.

This real-life international mystery thriller involves one of the largest jewel thefts of all time and a drama-packed hunt that doubled across two continents and an ocean. It all began when an American corporal searching for wine in the dank cellars of Kronberg, brought forth the cache from its secret hiding place. The corporal, probably innocently, promptly took the trove to the Wac captain in charge of the castle and it is she, along with her officer husband and possibly others, who now face trial for transporting it all to America.

The case has become more notorious perhaps, than all the billions looted by the Nazi armies in Europe. It is only in swift arrest of the principals and recovery of the loot that the United States Army is redeeming its honor.

Heifers As Ambassadors

Many New Yorkers must have been astonished by an advertisement which appeared in a Gotham daily journal recently. It read: Heifers wanted. 1. From 5,000 city folks who can't raise them. 2. From peace-loving men who believe that "my neighbor is my brother."

The advertisement was an appeal for funds by the Brethren Service Committee of the Church of the Brethren, a denomination of 1,021 churches and 180,000 members, to foster its campaign of helping the starving of Europe by shipping heifers to needy families. Livestock herds in Europe were sharply depleted by the war.

The committee takes the view that the best type of relief program is that which helps the needy to help themselves. It is concerned with lasting benefits rather than immediate relief, although it also collects food, clothing and other items. The Heifer-for-Relief project was launched in 1938 and the first 17 heifers were shipped to Puerto Rico. Since that time nearly 2,000 have been shipped to Europe. They are cared for on the boats by "sea-going cowboys," who in many instances are young ministers, college students, or farmhands. The transportation is handled by the UNRRA.

That the European recipients of these young cattle will greatly appreciate them as means of building up their own herds as well as supplying milk and butter may be taken for granted. It is possible that Rep. Harold C. Hegen of Minnesota exaggerated when he said that "the shipping of these cattle will do more to promote good will between our nations and the nations of the world than all the activities of the men in the State department," but one may rightly consider the cattle "ambassadors of peace."

For The Long Wave

Three returned GIs, in a letter to the press, have made so bold as to venture into the intricacies of a woman's hairdo. "One of the odd things that strike the returned vet who has been in Europe," they say, "is the funny way our women have of wearing their hair half curled and the upper half straight, an unnatural and apparently incurable result of the hairdressers' inability to cope with a partly-grown-out permanent."

This trio of veterans apparently took some time for close study of the subject between or after their battle duties, for they go on to remark that "European hairdressers have found a way to wave the straight hair without hacking off the curled area, permitting a charming, thoroughly feminine arrangement of some length, softly waved from top to bottom."

They indict American beauty operators in no uncertain terms: "Woman's crowning glory, falling in loose, shining waves about the shoulders, is still a sight dear to the masculine heart, and European women have never forgotten it. American women are essentially more beautiful. It's a great pity our hairdressers are not inventive enough to solve the problem of the long wave."

Will smart, American girls, with an eye to the influx of foreign brides, become aware that returned GIs have acquired some very definite ideas about feminine charms in their travels abroad, and seek directly to profit by them?

Restoring Old Homes In Nation

What has become of the old, abandoned homes that have so long dotted so many spots all over this country? We might almost say that a miracle is in progress. People who travel widely tell refreshing stories of their redemption. They are found now by hundreds and even thousands, over widely scattered areas, in process of restoration, given new life and becoming living parts of active and pleasant communities.

One of the most reassuring features of this development is the nature of the restoration itself. It is in so many cases a fine blending of old and new. A northern observer tells with keen appreciation about it: "Houses of nearly 100 years, or more, that were blackened for want of paint, sagging and leaking, bereft of window panes and doors, are now scarcely recognizable beneath their new exteriors. People have found that these houses, if repaired, will still keep away the wind and the rain and cold, and make happy homes. Many will stand another hundred years, if necessary, so sturdy is their construction."

Here is a resurrection in which every American may find satisfaction.

WASHINGTON CALLING

by MARQUIS CHILDS

Declares U. S. Must Save Small Business

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Out of the war has come increased concentration of the ownership of industry by a few corporations. Proof of that fact is provided by economists of the Senate small business committee who show that two-thirds of all manufacturing facilities are now operated by 250 giant corporations.

The actual percentage increase of concentration during the war was, in itself, not so great. More important is the fact that, thanks to prodigious government spending, the 250 giants today control facilities almost equal to the plants owned and operated before the war by all corporations big and small. That gives the big fellows a tremendous leverage of power now that the war is over.

What is more, the top 100 corporations spent 66 per cent of all the government funds expended on research. What this means in competitive advantage needs no underscoring. The committee report says: "The few big corporations, which received during the war years more money from the federal government for scientific research and development than the entire nation spent on such research in prewar years, can certainly be expected to apply many of the findings of this scientific research to peacetime production. Wartime scientific developments which have no peacetime uses are few and far between."

"Big business, in whose laboratories and plants this government-financed research was conducted, will have not only the first crack at putting into effect the peacetime applications of most of the wartime industrial research but also the patent rights on the commercial applications of that research."

Another competitive advantage of the giants—thanks to the way the tax laws were written—was that they could spend millions in war profits on research in prewar years, names before the public eye. Senate committee researchers found some interesting quotations from a speech made by President Truman when he was a senator denouncing the wider extravagances of wartime advertising.

Of the 250 giant corporations, five interest groups control nearly half of the total manufacturing capacity concentrated in the giant bracket. They are Rockefeller, Mellon, duPont and the Cleveland group.

There is a lot of fine political talk about helping small business. Some of it is sincere. But the cold facts belie this tale. The trend, accentuated by the war, is all in the direction of concentration.

Some who talk more piously about their concern for small business are working actively and directly against the interests of small business. The OPA is a case in point. While it is true that in some instances small business has suffered under OPA, if Congress knocks out the controls that remain, it will be small business that will suffer most.

In an inflationary spiral the giants can survive. They have the vast reserves of capital to carry them through the storm. The Senate committee report shows that by the middle of 1945 the 63 largest manufacturing corporations with assets of over $100,000,000 had increased their net working capital to nearly eight and a half billion dollars. That was more than the working capital of all manufacturing corporations in 1939.

In the boom-to-bust cycle, it is the small corporations that go under. The depression of 1929-32 proved that once and for all. The giants came out of it with more economic power than they held before.

Those who have been most clever and most active in stripping OPA (Continued on Next Page)

KEEP BUSY
If contented you would stay,
Keep busy!
If you'd drive dull care away,
Keep busy!
If you'd banish vain regret,
Cease to worry and to fret,
If your troubles you'd forget,
Keep busy!

If you face a dismal day,
Keep busy!
If the skies above are gray,
Keep busy!
If you wake at morning sad,
Missing joys which once you had,
If you think your luck is bad,
Keep busy!

If your fondest plans go wrong,
Keep busy!
If you fancy hours are long,
Keep busy!
If you're lonely, if you're blue,
Find some useful work to do,
Joy will soon be yours, if you
Keep busy!

The State Police Say:

On wet highway surfaces there is a tendency for wheels to "lock" when the brakes are applied. Ordinarily, because of friction between tires and dry road surfaces, the brakes slow the wheels down but do not halt them completely until the force of friction overcomes the force of momentum. If the brakes are suddenly applied on a wet surface they may stop or "lock" the wheels completely while the car itself continues to slide on like a sled.

Mr. Truman's troubles never seem to end... Now Harold Ickes is threatening to support him in 1948.

Harold's support is contingent on what the Republicans do so they also are in danger.

They will have to be very careful whom they nominate or they may win Harold.

Harold Stassen has had his fingers burned in Nebraska... The first lesson a potential candidate should learn is that nominations are won more often in Chicago than in Lincoln.

Dewey has practically eliminated himself for 48... He has reduced state spending, cut income taxes and indulged other reactionary tendencies.

A man with such a record could appeal only to conservatives... A small minority group which fortunately can be depended upon to provide the dough for the liberals to spend.

It's a little too early to talk about 48 but the picture is already getting complicated... Taft has several times voted the CIO way which he has no right to do... It just makes it more difficult to keep him pinned down as a foe of labor.

LOOKING AT LIFE

This particular column will probably stir up a hornet's nest of trouble for me.

Am I wrong about cats? Or am I just prejudiced because there are two of our neighbors' felines who come to my place out in Brookfield and try to get at the little fledglings in the trees?

And just yesterday I saw a lot of feathers, evidently a robin's feathers, scattered in the grass and a big brown and black tom sitting on ten feet away, from those feathers, licking his chops and with a smug gleam in his eyes.

Little Deuce sneaked into the hall closet last evening when he saw me getting dressed to go back to town. By the sad look in his eyes it seemed that he wanted to keep me out of the closet so that I couldn't get my coat.

And when I finally got into the car and started off, he howled as if his heart would break—and mine was pretty full, too.

Maybe cats love you just as much as your dog loves you and little Deuce loves me.

But, in my opinion, there is a big difference between those bird feathers and Deuce's howl.

Hints On Etiquette

It is customary to ask a girl friend to let you see her engagement ring. It is not good taste, however, to ask her if she is going to get one or to make comments if she has no ring.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

Do you realize that in just exactly 12 days it will be the 4th of July... that means that the summer is slipping by quickly and before we know it that last holiday will be here and gone... namely Labor Day... and then the schools will be opening and we will all be thinking about Thanksgiving... What kind of talk is that some of you are saying... it's only the 17th of June and here there is talk about Thanksgiving... I guess it's just one of those Blue Mondays.

Yesterday was Father's Day... the one day of the year set aside for Father... it was his day. Yes sir, it sure was. Father had the running of all things yesterday... He was not bothered around one bit... He could make the beds just however he thought and when he cooked dinner it was his own business and just how long it took to do the dishes was also his own planning. If the children didn't get put down for an afternoon nap no one said a thing. Without one comment it was father who made all the important decisions yesterday. In addition to all this freedom he was presented with a variety of gifts... from garden tools to cook books... and come the first of July he will again receive a surprise when those little letters arrive from the merchants. Yep, all you fathers should feel mighty pleased today... you will be a year older before you again enjoy such honor and privileges.

A report just arrived from a chap who is living in California... he was born and raised in the east... Pittsburgh... but for many years has been a "native" of the sunny state and has resided in LA and vicinity for a long time. He tells us that LA is becoming almost as dirty as his home town and the humidity is something to fight these days... and he can hardly wait until it's time for him to make a "trip back east" to get away from the heat and humidity... he tells us that there is nothing better for his morale than to spend a few weeks here... because when he does go West he then can relax and enjoy his beautiful country and wear the same white shirt for five days in a row.

People can move about all they want... but it will be a cold old day in July when they find a better populated town than right here in New Castle... the people here are better... don't you think?

Jackson Court Blast May Bring Benefit

WASHINGTON, June 17.—THE suggestion that in order to end the feud on the Supreme Court, now blazing in the open, that both Justice Jackson and Justice Black should resign, is not as simple as it seems. Various objections are offered.

FOR example, there is the very practical one that both of the disputants are not inclined in that direction. Nor is there any way to compel their retirement. Though his statement indicates an intention to stay, it is conceivable that Mr. Jackson might resign rather than spend the rest of his life in forced close association with a man whom he so heartily despises. Clearly, that might seem intolerable to him.

ABLE, personable and young, there easily might open for him an attractive political career and certainly a highly lucrative law practice. Also, he could retire with unblemished reputation. The worst that could be said of him would be that convinced Mr. Black, Mr. Douglas and their friends had "stabbed him in the back" while he was in Nuremberg, performing a duty placed upon him by the President, in a moment of anger he had struck back.

BUT with Mr. Black it is different. It is hard to believe in his voluntary retirement. His friends say the idea is absurd. If he did resign, in effect, it would mean that he had been driven off the bench by Mr. Jackson. It would appear an admission that the charges of unethical conduct against him were well based. Besides, Justice Black dearly loves being on the Supreme Court and the notion of voluntarily resigning is one those who know him best think he will never seriously entertain. In addition, Mr. Black is not a sensitive man. Close association on the bench with Mr. Jackson will not be nearly as tough on him as it will be on Mr. Jackson, a man of very different temperament.

FURTHER, it is argued that the charges of unethical conduct in not retiring from cases in which his former law partner was counsel do not bother Mr. Black any more than the harsh terms that were said about him when he permitted the Senate to confirm him under the impression that he had not been a member of the Ku Klux Klan. It was after confirmation that he admitted he had been a member. And a man who was undisturbed by the sort of attack that then developed will not be disturbed by the demand that he resign from Senate Bridges and others. As any judge, the dual resignation idea is not likely to work at all—and there is no other suggestion. The best opinion is that nothing will be done. A congressional investigation would be futile and foolish. The talk of impeachment is nonsense. So is the talk of Congress laying down a set of ethical rules.

PERHAPS matters will get better in the court. Perhaps, time—and Chief Justice Vinson—will restore judicial and personal harmony. At any rate, things must improve because they hardly can get worse. The dignity of the court has been almost completely destroyed—and that is a serious thing. The Black-Jackson feud is not the only one and feuding is not the only unfortunate practice indulged in by the justices. There is the personal publicity which certain members persistently court. There are the political aspirations which certain members cherish and promote. There is the unbecoming talk in which certain members indulge off the bench and which on one notable occasion led to a humiliating public rebuke.

ALTOGETHER, the court, in some ways, is at the lowest level it has been in many years. A recent Washington correspondent said the other day that this was the first time in history that a newspaper man could go to a Supreme Court justice and say, "Mr. Justice, what's going on?" and "get an earful." Attributing its present low estate to the kind of justices Mr. Roosevelt named is not entirely correct. It is true some of the Roosevelt appointees are anything but first grade, but at least one Justice Frankfurter—was conspicuously good.

PERHAPS, after all, the Jackson blast may turn out to be beneficial in the end. Often, the only way to end a bad situation is to bring the facts out in the open. This was proved recently in the unfortunate business of the Red Cross and its labor-union contracts—now happily no longer in effect. It may work out that way on the court. Not only feuding may be made unprofitable but a higher standard of ethics may be forced by the exposure of the low standard. Finally, a genuine public concern may make it more certain that this President—and those to follow—will name as Supreme Court justices in the future the best available men in the country instead of giving these immensely important appointments to political friends and supporters. This is the fundamental trouble with the court and all these feuds and improprieties flow from it.

Stettinius Resignation Ends Feud With Acheson
Government May Run Mines For Long Period Yet
John W. Snyder Given Real Surprise By Truman

Special To Central Press
WASHINGTON, June 17.—State department insiders regard the resignation of Ed Stettinius as UNO delegate as the ending of a bitter feud which has been going on in the department for the last five years. The leaders were Stettinius and Dean Acheson, now under secretary of state.

According to reports Acheson had become opposed to Stettinius when the latter was lend-lease administrator and Acheson was assistant secretary of state in charge of economic affairs. Acheson suffered a setback when Stettinius became undersecretary and put in Will Clayton as economic assistant. This gave Acheson the glad-hand job of representing the department before Congress.

The tables were turned when President Truman made Stettinius delegate to the UN and Acheson undersecretary. For much of the time he has been undersecretary, Acheson has been acting as secretary since James F. Byrnes has been absent on missions to London, Paris, Moscow and New York.

Government To Run Mines Long Time
The government may have to continue operating the nation's soft coal mines for some time, despite the contract settlement with John L. Lewis.

The union actually controls the situation. The mines will not be released until the UMW and the operators sign agreements patterned on the government-negotiated contract. UMW sources are fearful that too prompt completion of individual contracts with the operators, and release of the mines from federal control, might impair some of the concessions won by the miners.

The union is especially desirous that the navy survey of medical, sanitation and housing conditions in mining areas be finished before the government relinquishes the mines. Observers believe that Lewis will defer signing up with the mine owners until many such provisions of the government-negotiated agreement are carried out and benefits for the miners firmly established.

THE MARINES
Lieut. Gen. Roy S. Geiger, commanding general of the Pacific Marine Corps, can hardly be wrong in asserting that "public opinion would not permit abandonment of the Marine Corps" in any plan to merge army and navy departments into a department of defense. The statement was issued following an expressed opinion of Secretary of the Navy Forrestal that the proposed merger would permit outright abolishment of the Marine branch, or reduce it to a position of complete ineffectiveness.

No branch of our armed forces has a more brilliant record of high traditions than the Marines. None has taken a firmer hold on the respect and admiration of the people. The performances of the Marines in the Pacific warfare were staggering to the enemy and an incalculable contribution to our success in perhaps the worst fighting known to modern war.

Any program which would submerge or minimize the Marines as a factor to our military establishment not only would meet overwhelming popular disapproval, but would be a serious blow to our military efficiency.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

adults in their presence had no such fears or would guard their remarks. The first problem is for the parents and others caring for the child to overcome any fear of lightning they may have or, until they do, to discipline themselves so well as never to betray such fear.

It should help any adult or older child to master fear of an electric storm if he kept in mind how few persons are ever killed or injured by lightning and to observe how many of these victims might have escaped had they observed a few simple rules such as these: Never be near or under a tree, wire fence or tall chimney nor lean against the wall of a house during a thunderstorm.

It might reassure a fearful person to wear rubbers and stand in the middle of the room during the storm or to sit in an automobile when it is safe from falling trees and the like, the rubber being a good insulator. When any warning is given the older child not yet burdened with fear of lightning, it should be given in a matter-of-fact way.

Always be near the young child during an electric storm. If he is asleep, be on hand lest the thunder waken him in fright. Should he be frightened on waking, cuddle or rock him. If at night, induce him to try to see with you as many things from the window as possible at each flash.

At an early age as you can, interest the child in observing the play of lightning of a receding storm and listen to the distant thunder, enjoying the beauty thereof with you. This also has good therapeutic value for older children and adults beset with fear of thunder storms.

When Karen, a granddaughter, was about two, I purposely read to her from her favorite book of nursery rhymes during a violent electric storm. Following a terrific clap, she clung to me and turned white. "Boom boom, that was a big clap!" I said nonchalantly and read on. "Boom, boom, that was a big one, too!" she said with only slight show of fear after the next clap.

Then, as the storm receded, we laughed and talked about the boom booms and tried to hear as many as we could as they grew dimmer and dimmer. Last summer when Karen was three and her brother about 18 months old, she laughed and talked with him about the big boom booms. Though he looked a bit surprised following one or two severe claps, he revealed no fear thereafter.

The biographer of Sir Walter Scott tells of Walter when he was an infant. He had wandered from the house and was found lying on the ground and looking up at the lightning clapping his hands and shouting, "Bonny! Bonny!" My bulletin, "Fear," may be had in a stamped, addressed envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.

WASHINGTON CALLING

should pay heed to this. Ohio's Senator Taft at times talks nobly about small business and equality of opportunity. But the job he had done on price control will leave small business with few defenses in the economic storms that he ahead.

The Glacier Age
One of the great perils of this ever-increasing concentration is that government must more and more intervene to try to even the balance. To match the concentrated economic power in the giant corporations, you have concentrated political power in the trade unions. Government has been trying, and not very successfully, to reconcile these powers.

The ultimate end is statism. It is the corporate state in which you have the powers of the corporation and the powers of the union forever frozen. That is the end of enterprise. Yes, it's the end of freedom.

The Marxist, the Communist sits back with an air of comfortable assurance. This is the inevitability which he has been predicting for so long. But most Americans will not accept that inevitability. Our system has given freedom of opportunity and we must make sure that it continues to do so. That means enforcement of the anti-trust laws. It means positive action by government along the lines of the Tennessee Valley Authority. If we do nothing, the drift toward the age of the economic glacier will continue.

Allegheny College Class Is Graduated

MEADVILLE, Pa., June 17.—(INS)—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, president of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, today told the 1946 Allegheny College graduating class that international peace can be assured only if the democratic process is followed.
"Power must be brought under democratic control," the bishop declared, "and justice must be established by the democratic process."
College President John R. Schultz conferred honorary degrees of doctor of laws on Bishop Oxnam, Paul W. Johnston, vice president of the Erie Railroad and Gwilym A. Price, president of Westinghouse Electric Corporation.

The commencement ceremony was marked by the award of posthumous degrees to 20 undergraduates who died during the war.

Vance C. McCormick Is Taken By Death

Harrisburg Publisher And Former Democratic National Chairman Dies Sunday

HARRISBURG, June 17.—(INS)—Funeral services will be held Wednesday for Vance C. McCormick, Harrisburg publisher and former Democratic national chairman, who succumbed at his country home Sunday just three days short of his 74th birthday.

McCormick, a confidant of the late President Woodrow Wilson, died at his Cedar Cliff Farms home after a brief illness. He is survived by his widow and sister, Miss Anne McCormick, of Harrisburg. Services will be held in the Pine Street Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon.

Gov. Edward Martin joined friends and business associates mourning the death of one of Pennsylvania's foremost citizens.
"I am terribly shocked over the news of the passing of Mr. McCormick," the governor said when told of the publisher's death.

"He was one of the very outstanding men in Pennsylvania and he was a nationally known figure. He was a man whose friendship I enjoyed over a good many years. His services in this period of national emergency will be greatly missed."

A national figure for more than 30 years, he was chairman of the World War I Board of Trade from 1917 to 1919, a member of the war mission to Great Britain and France and Wilson's advisor during peace negotiations at the Versailles conference.

Health Talks By DR. W. A. HOMER City Health Superintendent

WALKING

Walking is usually a good kind of exercise. To take a walk just for the exercise is pretty good.

Walking to church is a pretty good proposition. Staggering is not a very good kind of walking.

Walking to school or college or business college is pretty good for young people.

Walking to jail is not so good. Some people can think better when they are walking.

Walking seems to be as good for the mind as for the body. As a form of exercise it is pretty safe.

If you get short of breath when walking up hill, it would probably be better not to do any hill climbing.

If you are on your feet at work all day then perhaps it is better to rest your feet when you get a chance instead of taking a walk.

Some preachers and judges take long walks so that they can think things out.

Worry is not good but thinking is fine.

Walking and thinking make a pretty good combination.

Mikhailovitch Makes Denials

BELGRADE, June 17.—(INS)—Draja Mikhailovitch, Yugoslavia's Chetnik general, denied today that he and his wartime followers were mass slaughterers.

Mikhailovitch told the military court trying him on charges of treason and collaboration with the Axis that he was innocent on both counts.

He swore he had fought honorably against the enemy, and declared he was helpless to prevent reported massacres by his Chetnik fighters.

The bearded general stoutly denied he had slain thousands of Moslems, as the court charged, and termed "false" stories that his men had flogged and killed tens of thousands of Marshal Tito's Partisans.

MORROW-PETERSON WEDDING SATURDAY

One of the prettiest of the early summer weddings was solemnized in the First United Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon at 2:30 when Miss Ruth Morrow, daughter of Mrs. Pearl W. Morrow of 409 North Jefferson street, became the bride of Robert Lenard Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard F. Peterson of 323 East Wallace avenue.

The presence of a throng of guests.

Vows were exchanged before the candlelighted altar which was banked with palms and ferns. Rev. James E. Crawford of Mount Jackson performed the double ring service, with Rev. S. E. Irvine, pastor of the church, assisting.

Mrs. John F. Love presented a program of nuptial music before the service, with Mrs. W. D. Warnock, aunt of the bride, singing "I Love You", "Until", and "The Lord's Prayer".

Given in marriage by her brother, George W. Morrow, the bride was attractive in a gown of figured net, fashioned with a moulded bodice, bracelet length sleeves ending in a small ruffle, and a full skirt. Her fingertip veil fell from a Juliet cap embroidered with seed pearls and sequins, and she carried a bridal handkerchief which fifteen other brides had used and which was made in Czechoslovakia. For something old she wore her grandmother's wedding and engagement rings and for luck she had a three-pence in her shoe. Her flowers were white snapdragons, carnations, and gladioli, with a shower of candytuft.

Miss Fae Wahl of Evans City, wore a dress of peach silk jersey as maid of honor, with a chain of daisies in her hair and a bouquet of yellow snapdragons and pink larkspur. The bride's sister, Miss Frances Morrow, was junior bridesmaid, wearing a blue tulle gown with a net skirt, a daisy chain, and a bouquet of yellow snapdragons and pink roses.

Joseph A. Book was the best man, while the ushers were Ralston Warnock, cousin of the bride, and Alfred R. Hall, cousin of the groom.

Following the congratulatory period in the church vestibule, a reception for one hundred guests was held at the home of the bride.

Aides at the reception were Miss Fannie Love, Miss Libby Dickey, Mrs. Charles E. McGrath, Mrs. C. M. McNichols, Mrs. M. E. McNeely, Miss Nora Sullivan, Mrs. Frank H. Bailey, Mrs. James E. Swisher, and Mrs. W. A. Simler.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson left on a wedding trip of undisclosed destination later in the afternoon. After July 1, they will be at home at 420 East Garfield avenue.

Mrs. Peterson is a graduate of New Castle high school, class of '43, and is employed as a bookkeeper at the Citizens Lumber Company. The groom graduated from New Castle high school in 1942, and has recently been discharged after 26 months' service in the Pacific. He is employed by the United Engineering.

Sir Thomas Moore's "Utopia" was published in Latin, translated into German, French and Italian, but it was not until 35 years had passed and the author dead 16 years that it was put into English.

In her palmy days, Venice had a population of only 200,000, but her maritime power was so great she supported 17,000 seamen and an equal number of men in various shipbuilding trades.

Recall Near Panic

When Talkies Made

Hollywood Debut

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (INS)—Things are tough around Hollywood this summer, too, what with the housing shortage, the food problem and the reconversion difficulties of stars and directors alike.

But it's nothing like the panic that pervaded the place 20 years ago—when talking pictures were born, making and breaking actors overnight and posing a thousand technical problems.

You still hear the old-timers talking about those days.

Drastic Transition

The art of acting underwent its most drastic transition of all time. Wild and graphic pantomime became a museum piece—except for guys like Charlie Chaplin and Harpo Marx, of course.

It became necessary to drop the whole business of windmilling arms, arching eyebrows and muscular twitchings and carryings on. A few spoken words rendered 90 per cent of the gestures obsolete.

Although many of them have since come back, men with high pitched voices perished professionally at the time, and one of them, John Gilbert, actually died—many said of a broken heart—when his voice failed to match his screen character.

Paul Lukas, a non-English speaking newcomer from Hungary, had to halt picture work altogether and go to school to learn the language. Greta Garbo, Joan Crawford and Dolores Costello, all extremely feminine gals, were shocked to hear their voices coming back to them on the early recording machines in deep, mannish tones, which was initially disillusioning even though they later overcame the handicap—and then some!

Looked Like Curtains

At first it looked like curtains for western stars, partially because at first it was thought impossible to do any recording out of doors. Then, when they finally began to lick the open-air recording problem, it was next to impossible to get big men like Buck Jones, Hoot Gibson and Tom Mix to come right out in front of everybody and say "I love you." The sub-title scribes had taken care of such romancing for them in the past.

Directors had so much trouble with Tom in one picture that they finally let him spell out the horrible sentence with his six-gun on a nearby wooden fence!

There were other troubles—microphones, for instance. Jack Holt tells about the time some studio genius rigged him up with a chest mike. He strode around the stage with the connecting wire trailing out of one pants leg.

All went well until the mike wire accidentally brushed across an uninsulated portion of a heavily-charged spotlight cord—and Jack took off for higher altitudes.

Jumped All Over Place

"I jumped all over the place, with sparks practically shooting outta my ears," Jack relates ruefully.

"Half the crowd thought I was practicing a vaudeville routine and the other half went hunting for the short circuit. They finally pulled the right switch and uncharged me and I came back down to earth."

After that experience, somebody hit on the idea of hanging the mike from a fishing pole so it could be held over the actors, just above camera range. It was only a matter of development from that to today's intricately perfected mike.

Reminiscing about the actors in those days caused someone to recall the first child star of the talkies—three-year-old Davey Lee who played "Sonny Boy" with Al Jolson in the "Singing Fool."

They dug up Davey and discovered he's a war veteran, now busy finishing his delayed education at the University of Southern California.

As a publicity stunt to advertise the twentieth anniversary of talkies, they brought Davey back to Hollywood to see if he found anything familiar here.

He didn't see a thing he remembered as he searched around the sets where scenes were being shot. But suddenly he stiffened like a bird dog. Veteran actors stubbornly insist that his subsequent statement had reference to the aura of turpentine, greasepaint, fresh sawdust, tobacco smoke and perfume which always surrounds a movie set.

"Ahhh," said Davey, "but I remember that smell!"

Former Members Of National Guard Units Organize

Capt. Edward Eakin Is Named As Temporary Chairman Of
New Organization

Former members of national guard units in New Castle organized themselves into a caisson and Sabre club Sunday night when a group of them met in the Cunningham armory on Frank avenue. Temporary officers were named and a tentative program adopted.

Capt. Edward Eakin was named temporary chairman of the new club. Russell Melvin, vice chairman; Merrill Walls, secretary; and Lt. Col. George F. Mitchell was named financial secretary and treasurer. A house committee of the following five men was named: Robert Johnson, A. Lewis Conn, Harvey G. Blintrim, Bart Richards and D. Poulson.

The purpose of the club is similar to that of an alumni of a class or school, to retain the memories of former servicemen and to aid in the work of the active units.

Any man who ever served in a national guard unit in New Castle, no matter when, is eligible for membership in the new club, and in the next few months it is hoped to build the membership.

Atomic Research Is Defended By British King

LONDON, June 17.—(INS)—King George VI defended atomic research today and called on Britons to "reject evil and choose only good" applications of the wonders of this scientific age.

The British monarch spoke at the opening of the Royal Society's Empire Scientific conference at London university. He said:

"The production of the atomic bomb through scientific prediction and scientific collaboration has brought home to the world with terrifying directness the fact that the increase of man's knowledge of the material universe may be fraught with infinite possibilities for good or evil.

"This must never be used as an argument against scientific research.

"It should rather lead us all to seek ways and means of increasing our respect for moral principles and endeavor under God's guidance to reject evil and choose only good."

Philadelphia Has Hard Time Housing A.R.C. Delegates

PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—(INS)—Delegates from all parts of the world began arriving in Philadelphia today for the 21st annual convention of the American National Red Cross—and the newcomers had their troubles.

Local Red Cross officials said that at least 1,000 of the delegates have no place to sleep when they get to Philadelphia.

There will be 6,000 delegates in all. Rooms have been set aside for them at more than 30 hotels and additional accommodations have been made at colleges, various institutions—and even the homes of local Red Cross members.

Much Damage In Pittsburgh Storm

PITTSBURGH, June 17.—(INS)—Widespread damage was reported today in the wake of an electric storm, the second within a week, that yesterday lashed the Pittsburgh district.

The storm flooded streets, jammed traffic, toppled trees, utility poles and power lines, leaving hundreds of homes without light. Nearly an inch of rain fell.

Lightning struck a circuit in Millville, crippling power lines several hours. Backed-up sewers flooded low areas in Pittsburgh, and high tension wires and street lights were out in McKeesport.

Weatherman John J. Murphy said there was no immediate danger of flash floods as a result of the storm.

Prepares To Probe Klan In Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, June 17.—(INS)—Judge Henry Ellenbogen disclosed today that he was preparing to investigate the activities of the Ku Klux Klan in Pittsburgh.

The judge said he had been informed by a minister that the Klan has been meeting and operating regularly in the district but declined to disclose the organization's meeting place.

Both teams rushed to the aid of a referee attacked by a spectator at an English soccer football game. What's this—a publicity stunt?

Hear Of Need For Relief In Greece

Capt. Georgiadis Addresses
Meeting At Greek Church
Sunday Afternoon

"People of Greece will be as badly off this coming winter as they were in 1941, when they died in the streets, unless help comes," declared Captain Alex Georgiadis Sunday afternoon when he addressed a meeting in St. George Greek Orthodox church on East Reynolds street. The meeting was called by the Greek War Relief Association for the purpose of giving aid to the stricken people of Greece.

Captain Georgiadis served with the Greek guerrillas during the occupation and following the liberation returned to his post with the American Army Intelligence Corps. He told of the hunger and suffering of the Greek people, and of the efforts of UNRRA to help them. "Forty percent of the livestock of Greece was driven off by the Germans," said he, "and Greece is an agricultural country. Without livestock the farms cannot be worked and thus a food shortage is inevitable."

"Greece needs 10,000 farm animals, heifers, bulls, cows, horses, mules. Through the Greek War Relief Association these animals can be bought and shipped if the people of the United States will contribute the money."

"Packaged food is needed badly and the packages can be shipped without any more trouble to the donors than providing the money. Help is needed badly, a whole nation will suffer this winter unless something is done quickly to help."

Speer Maroulis was in charge of the meeting and urged that New Castle citizens do their utmost to aid the unfortunates in Greece. As the result of the meeting new interest was generated in the relief problem and should show tangible results in the near future.

Two Are Killed In Beaver County Plane Accident

CONWAY, Pa., June 17.—(INS)—An investigation was underway today to determine the cause of the air accident which snuffed out the lives of an army air force pilot and a civilian instructor near Conway. First Lt. Robert W. Hubbs, 24, and former Flight Officer William J. Schnipert, Jr., 34, both of Pittsburgh, were killed instantly when their plane stalled out and crashed to the earth just a short distance from the airport.

Airport officials said Lt. Hubbs had fired the plane for a Sunday flight and Schnipert, the father of three children, went along to check the pilot's solo ability. Observers said the pilot, in trying to land, overshot the runway and was attempting to regain altitude when the accident occurred.

Shipyard Worker Held By Police

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 15.—(INS)—A 39-year-old shipyard worker was held on a charge of atrocious assault and battery today because he allegedly linked a steel chastity belt about his wife. Police Captain Edward Webb quoted William Truax as saying he had fashioned the belt to keep his wife "from running around." The wife, Mrs. Rose L. Truax, 38, borrowed a coat from a neighbor to cover her body and a nickel to telephone police. Stating that she was in agony from the tight one-inch steel links, she denied her husband's charge. She said, "I hate men—all men."

Report Jewelry Stolen Worth $12,800

PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—(INS)—Detectives intensified a search today for $12,800 worth of jewelry which disappeared from the apartment of Mrs. Enola Johnson, widow of a millionaire railroad executive, in the Warwick hotel.

Mrs. Johnson told investigators the jewels had been locked in a safe and that she had not left her rooms except for a short motor trip Saturday. She said the gems were covered by $13,000 insurance.

She is the widow of J. Carl Johnson, one-time official of the Seaboard Air Line Railway, who died in 1933.

GENERAL CLAIMS WE EARN RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES

PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—(INS)—Maj. Gen. Leland Hobbs, wartime commander of the 30th Division, warned today that rights and privileges are earned—not given.

Gen. Hobbs told a Flag Day gathering in Philadelphia:

"We are entitled to no rights and privileges except as we earn them—not by talking, but by doing, and by integrating them with our duties and obligations."

"An intelligent, individual patriotism is imperative," he continued. "If this nation is to vindicate the past, maintain the present, and rise to its future destiny."

HUNT MISSING BOY

BUTLER, N. J., June 17.—(INS)—Police and volunteers renewed their search today for Larry Blossfeld, 7, who vanished in the heavily wooded environs of Forest Hill Park while picnicking with other children Saturday.

Three hundred persons combed the woods yesterday and last night. An artificial lake was dragged.

Forty Scouts At Summer Camp For First Week Outing

District Boy Scouts Begin First Week At Summer Camp On Slippery Rock Creek

Forty Boy Scouts of the Lawrence County Council pulled into their summer camp on the banks of the Slippery Rock Sunday morning, ready to begin the first week of the camp sessions.

Following their medical check-ups by Dr. J. W. Post of New Castle, the Scouts were assigned areas and started their orientation to outdoor life under the supervision of Harold Burry, camp director.

The scouts will have a busy week, rising at 7:30 each morning and going to bed at 10:30 p. m. All phases of the scouting program will be covered under the competent leadership of the camp councilors.

Christen New Boat

The boys christened a new boat Sunday, one of five they have at their disposal. A new kayak, called the "Water Bug," is also available for the use of the boys.

The scouts will have the advantage of a new demonstration area at the camp this summer. One of the additions to this facility is a signal tower from which the boys will send blinker signals in their Morse code work.

Councilors serving at the camp are as follows: Joe McKenzie, John Brinton, John Cole, Gilbert Gray, Wallace Downs, Homer Winter, Wayne Courson, Wayne Buchanan, "Skip" Griffiths, Jim Redmond, Charles Wing and Marvin Leiby.

Assisting Mr. Burry will be J. Arthur Turek, in charge of woodcraft and W. Crowell, waterfront director.

The camp sessions will last five weeks, with the last group finishing July 21.

Development Of Colorado River Basin Is Urged

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(INS)—The Interior Department today strongly recommended development of the vast Colorado river basin to strengthen the internal economy of the nation in providing home, farm, and jobs for America's increasing population.

In a report on the economic potentialities of the mighty 1,400-mile river, the department said that development of the Colorado's water resources would expand the agricultural and industrial frontiers of the United States.

The report stated that full-scale development of the river basin, comprising one-twelfth of the land area of the country, would provide irrigation for thousands of acres of arid land, generate power for farms and industry, and eliminate danger of devastating floods.

Many Veterans Of American Can Company Return

NEW YORK, June 17.—Veterans hold jobs in American Can Co. at the rate of nearly one veteran for every two other workers, Carl H. Black, executive vice president, announced after a survey of the company's veterans' reinstatement program revealed nearly 7,000 veterans among the 24,500 people working in the company's plants across the United States and Canada.

Nearly 3,000 of those veterans are former regular employees who had left to enter the services, Mr. Black said, and of that number 613, or nearly one out of every five that have returned, have been placed in higher ranking jobs than the ones they left to go to war.

PREPARING TO BATTLE POLIO

PITTSBURGH, June 17.—(INS)—A state-wide poliomyelitis preparedness conference will be held Friday and Saturday in Harrisburg.

Announcement of the conference was made jointly by State Secretary of Health H. W. West and Giddings B. Tiffany, state representative for the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis.

The conference, according to Tiffany, is designed to prepare each of Pennsylvania's 67 counties for possible infantile paralysis epidemics this summer.

FRENCH CATCH ON

PARIS.—(INS)—Ever since American troops arrived in Paris, puzzled French men have been scratching their heads over the American phrase "in the dog house." Now famous French couturier, Robert Piguet, has come out with a typically French reply to the bizarre American "dog house" idea. Piguet's creation is an accessory for ladies, an elegant gold-studded collar with a golden leash that loops over the bosom and is caught in the boutonniere.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 10 pints daily. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's gives happy relief and will help the 16 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

RETIRE AFTER 25 YEARS IN PERU

Miss Gertrude Hanks, former teacher in New Castle schools, has retired after teaching in Lima, Peru, of 25 years.

She was paid high tribute for her outstanding work by officials of Lima and high governmental heads. Miss Hanks is spending a vacation at her former home in Guys Mills, Crawford county, before deciding on her future. She was graduated at Allegheny college in 1917 and taught for three years at New Castle.

FOR EASTERN STANDARD TIME

YOUNGSTOWN, O., June 16.—With only three days left for referendum action, council's program to restore Eastern Standard Time on a year-round basis apparently will be unchallenged. An ordinance to repeal Daylight Saving Time was passed by city council May 20.

City Clerk John H. Lemon said today that unless petitions bearing signatures of six per cent of the city's registered voters asking for a referendum, are presented by Wednesday the law will become effective automatically.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Non-housing construction applications were turned down at the rate of $22,000,000 a day during the period from May 31 to June 10, the Civilian Production Administration reported. CPA Chief John D. Small promised his agency will continue to trim authorizations for non-housing construction until the end of July.

Declares Russia Forces Red Regime Upon All Poland

BALTIMORE, Md., June 17.—(INS)—Gen. Bor-Komorowski, Polish war hero, told a Baltimore audience that Russia has forced a Communist regime upon Poland "supported by Soviet bayonets."

General Bor declared that the world must not permit further Russian expansion in Europe, and said: "In Italy there is an army of brave, patriotic Poles; in Britain and on other nations there are thousands of others—200,000 in all soldiers of Poland."

"In Germany there are 60,000 Polish ex-prisoners of war. None of these will return to Poland so long as it is being governed by a Soviet quisling regime."

It is not the fault of our nation that Poland is ruled by the stooges of Moscow, who, supported by Soviet bayonets, have introduced a Communist regime against the will of the nation.

"Russia has illegally appropriated age-old Polish cities. Now our nation suffers as never before. Against it will this nation, the most faithful of the Allies, has been fettered with chains of bondage for its inimitable will and for the deeds of its soldiers."

"Never will the Polish nation nor its rightful soldiers accept this unilateral decision and our nation wishes to be sole architect of its future."

Crack Pilots To Share In A-Bomb Attack In Pacific

KWAJALEIN, June 17.—(INS)—Despite the fact that they will not ride in the priority atom bomb carrier over Bikini, the crack pilots who placed in the hotly-contested competitions for dropping honors will still have key roles in the experiment.

Col. Paul Tibbets will stand by at Kwajalein with his "Enola Gay" and will take off should anything go amiss with the plane carrying the bomb.

Li Col Jack Catton of Los Angeles and Lt. Col. Clarence McPherson of Cheswick, Pa., each with their complete crews, will be radiological reconnaissance pilots and will have ringside seats at the atomic blast.

The foursome in the Bikini race also will be given ringside seats in observation craft for the second atom experiment which will follow the initial explosion by approximately three weeks.

LOUD MEGAPHONE FOR ATLANTIC CITY

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 17.—(INS)—Mamma shouldn't have much trouble finding Junior if he gets lost this summer in Atlantic City.

WANTS STOCK DELIVERED

Norman B. Ward and Company, brokers of Pittsburgh have filed a suit against Thomas Bevan in which they ask that Bevan be ordered to deliver to them 11,204 shares of stock in the Union Brewing Co. It is claimed that in February the defendant asked the plaintiff company to dispose of his stock at a net price of 45 cents per share. This the company claims it did and now asks that Bevan be forced to conclude his part of the agreement.

TRUCK LOADED With Fresh Meat Reported Hi-Jacked

WOODBURY, N. J., June 17.—(INS)—State police are investigating the theft of a truck loaded with 31,000 pounds of fresh meat which was hi-jacked near Camden airport in a manner reminiscent of the bootleg liquor era.

Manlove S. Jones, 29 of Wilmington, Del., told police a dramatic tale of being abducted while checking the tires of the truck. The meat was being hauled in a truck-trailer from Wilmington to New York.

Jones said he was ordered into a black sedan at gunpoint by three men who drove him around for some time and finally dropped him off unharmed at Woodbury. He was picked up 12 hours after by a taxi-cab driver.

Police held Jones for questioning as a material witness. They expressed belief that the smooth-working gang may have been members of a large black-market gang.

Garden Notes

The spring-flowering shrubs can now be pruned by removing a portion of the oldest stems at ground level.

The lifting and division of bearded irises soon after flowering offers an excellent opportunity for ridding the plants of diseased portions and borer infestations.

If the lawn requires watering do a thorough job. The frequent superficial watering of turf in sunny areas may accomplish little else than promote the growth of crabgrass.

Summer squashes are often avoided in small vegetable gardens because of space requirements, but the best varieties require very little room and are exceptionally prolific producers.

Nicotine, pyrethrum or rotenone are the spraying specifics for the lace bug that attacks rhododendrons; and nicotine and molasses for box leaf miner that appears under leaves.

Early-flowering rock garden plants which spread rapidly, particularly phlox subulata, can be divided now. If not divided and replanted it is advisable to trim the plants relatively hard.

Lloyd Mangrum Wins Nacional Open Golf Title

Nelson-Ghezzi Are Losers In Playoff Match

Greatest National Open Battle In Years Won By Ex-Army Corporal With Iron Nerves

PLAYOFF OCCURS IN DRIVING RAIN

By CHARLES EINHSTEIN
(International News Service Sports Editor)
CLEVELAND, June 17.—Lloyd Mangrum, the dapper 34-year-old Californian who brought back a jet-propelled putter from his tenure as an army corporal in Europe, is the latest—and, one even hears, the greatest—champion in the 46 years history of the national open golf tournament.

Today his double-playoff, one-stroke triumph over Byron Nelson and Vic Ghezzi, scored at Cleveland's Canterbury club in the midst of a raging thunderstorm late yesterday afternoon shown in brilliant perspective.

Thrilling Finish
In saying anything further than that one hardly knows where to begin. There was so much that happened, so much that could have happened, from the moment the three playoff contenders ended in a par-72 tie yesterday morning and were forced to play another 18 holes, to the spectator who lifted a dripping flap of the press tent, looked in and said:

"Mangrum just won it. He had a 72. Nelson and Ghezzi had 73's."
The playoff had been occasioned by the fact that the favored Nelson, pride of Toledo and Texas, the six-foot Ghezzi, glory of Knoxville, Tenn., and Mangrum—just another guy from Los Angeles—were tied for low Saturday night with 284 strokes apiece at the end of the regulation 72-hole stretch.

Large Gallery Follows
A championship-setting 18 holes was scheduled for yesterday morning. Some thought it possible two contenders might tie and force another round. Nobody dreamed that, for the first time in open tournaments, three deadlocked men would deadlock again.
But that was what happened. All three shot even-par 73's over the morning 18 and an hour later over they went again, with 4,500 fans in their wake.

St. Margaret's To Play Elks

St. Margaret's club baseball team of the seventh ward will play the Elks this evening at 6 o'clock at the E. & A. field. It was announced by Manager Blackie Adamo. A fast game is looked for, as both teams are strong.

Calcutta Handicap Tourney Enjoyed

Nine-Hole Tourney With Dinner Following Will Be Tuesday Feature

Something different was tried at the New Castle Country club course Saturday by Pro Bill Barker, a Calcutta Handicap tourney, and the winners were: Ed Smith 3rd and Ernie Stitzinger with a total of 137 strokes. Medalist for the event was Herman Green with a 75 card—three over par 72 for the layout.

The scores: Ed Smith 3rd 82-14-68, Ernie Stitzinger 88-19-69, total 137; Dr. Sam Perry Jr., 97-28-69, Herman Green 78-9-69, total 138; William E. Watkins 84-13-71, Herman Green 74-7-68, total 139.

It was announced by Barker that a nine-hole men's tourney with a dinner following will be held Tuesday evening for all club members who care to participate. Robert M. Garland is golf chairman of the Country club.

Castle Hills Is Fourth Sunday

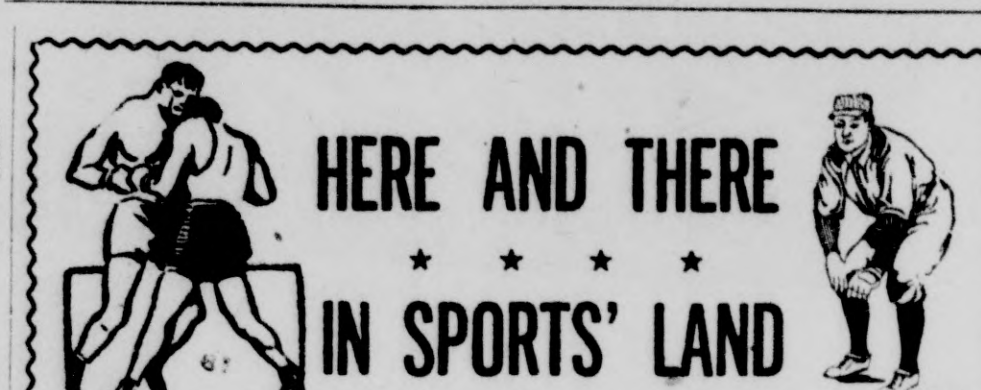

Youngstown Captures Western Penn.-Eastern Ohio League Championship, Pipoly Medalist

Castle Hills golf team finished fourth yesterday at the tricky narrow fairways and heavily wooded Avalon course at Warren, O., with the Youngstown Ma-Pe club winning the Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio golf league championship by staying in the undefeated category after four rounds, winning 16 matches and losing none.

There is a hot race on between Castle Hills and Tam O'Shanter of West Middlesex for second place in the league with the final match at Youngstown's Henry Stambaugh course on June 30 the deciding factor.

Run Into Trouble
The golfers ran into all kinds of difficulty at Warren yesterday with the nine dog-leg holes and fast hard greens. The Castle Hills team especially found the going rough all except Capt. Fred Palmer, who blazed in with a 75 card to be runner-up to Steve Pipoly, the medalist, who had a fine 74 card.

Castle Hills scores yesterday were as follows: Fred Palmer 36-39-75, Teddy Lach 40-37-77, Stan Bukowski 41-42-83, Willie Grommes 39-46-85, Izzy Solomon 40-43-83, Bob Palmer 41-42-83.
The scoring yesterday was as follows: Youngstown 107 points, Tam O'Shanter 78, Warren 76, Castle Hills 58, Mahoning Country club 41. The standing as regards wins and loss will be announced later. It was stated by Jimmy Ludwig, secretary of the league.

BIRKIN operations, Paris peace efforts, congressional actions and what not, will be forced into the rear this week because of the coming world's heavyweight titanic fight between Champion Joe Louis and Billy Conn. Louis knocked out Conn in the thirteenth round in their first "go" years have passed since, and today speculation is rife as to what will happen Wednesday night in New York. Locally, some favor Joe and others pick Billy. Here are a few predictions, made locally: Hugh Hannon: "If Conn guards his jaw and keeps punching Joe's belly he will win." Harry Hagan: "I'm stringing along with Joe Louis although I would like Billy Conn to win." Joe Aquara: "I predict Billy Conn will defeat Joe Louis." Dick Hagan (just out of the marines): "I'm betting Conn will win." So, sport-minded, the statements foregoing were made today. What do you predict? If you desire to join speculators, mail or drop your prediction in The News mail no later than Tuesday noon.

Remember the Mr. Anonymous (Joe Graham of Cleveland) vs. Joe Aquara vs. Hugh Hannon history of quartet singers (Buzzers) and minstrelmen who were prominent here years ago? Aquara and Hannon met yesterday at South Mercer and East Washington street and compared notes. While they were so engaged along came Harry Hagan, an ex-boxer and soldier. When asked: "What do you know about such things?" he told Here & There: "I did a lot of it while I was in the army (World War I)."

Stepping out of his role as an erstwhile minstrel, the said Hugh, who no longer is sufficiently spry to soft-shoe as he once done, included in baseball talk and remarked: "Not so long ago you recalled that Fred Jarvis pitched a double-header and won both games from the Homestead Grays at Cascade Park. Can you recall Memorial Day, 1895, when Harry Gordon pitched for New Castle against Gussie Gannon of Sharon in a double-header here and won both games? Here & There had to confess his knowledge of that feat was nil. He was only in the creeping stage in those days.

Bernard N. Hanlon will see Joe Louis and Billy Conn fight. Frank Cochran will also witness the fracas. . . . Joe Rick has moved his stable Anita, according to belated reports. . . . A. A. U. of Pittsburgh, has ruled out the staging of five round amateur bouts in Mercer County, according to reports, yet amateur rules permit five, two minute rounds, instead of three, three minute rounds. Personally, Here & There believes that three, two minute rounds, would produce more action than three, three minute rounds.

Charlie Walther, local announcer, has promised to dig into a cedar chest and resurrect a moth-balled protected "soup and fish" which he will wear when he spels off the names and weights of boxers who will appear in the city recreation commission's pugilistic extravaganza in late July. . . . Eddie Meyers, manager of the Leslie hotel, stepped into the "ring" today to inform the recreation commission: "You are welcome to use all the facilities of the Leslie hotel as an uptown ticket center for your very worthwhile efforts to increase recreational facilities here." . . . Clint (Rosy) White, fish commissioner, wears a red plaid hat which a fisherman friend claims is so inflatable, fish jump at any bait he uses on a hook.

Classy Indies Defeat Legion

Zidow's classy Lawrence Indies increased their lead in the city baseball Sunday at Washington field by humbling an eager American Legion team before a large crowd 3 to 1 with Michaliko outpitching Fred Shaffer. The Indies had one big inning the third getting three of their runs. The Legion could get but one run despite three Indies misfires.

14 Runs In Fourth
The Len Gilbert manager Tigers had two big innings, the fourth in which they broke city league records by scoring 14 runs, and in the sixth by scoring eight runs. The Slovaks used three hurlers—Dugan, Outlaw and Lenhart—to no avail as the Tigers clubbed out 25 hits with Del Prince having four, a double, a triple and two singles. Kerr with two doubles and a single and Biddle three, including a triple and two singles.

That Slovaks, to make matters worse, had five errors in the field, the Tigers bobbing two.
Tonight the Universal A. A. will play the Tigers at Lee avenue at 6 o'clock in a postponed game, with Adams opposing Peck Houston or Eddie Stewart.

Shenango Pottery Bowlers Banquet Enjoyable Event

Climax Great Duxpin Season With Party Saturday Evening, 150 Present

DR. WALTER BEBERICH FEATURE ATTRACTION

Climaxing another great season on the alleys, the Shenango Pottery Bowlers' banquet had their annual banquet and frolic Saturday evening at a New Wilmington road cafe with over 150 taking part. Dr. Walter Beberich of Westminster College was the feature attraction. It was a typical Shenango Pottery banquet with everyone having a good time from the start to finish. There are 16 teams in the Pottery league, 14 men's teams and two women teams.

Enjoy Fine Meal
The meal consisted of spaghetti and meat balls, with a half a fried chicken topped off and only as "Summy" can cook and serve it.

No one got away from the well-laden tables hungry, that's for sure. Considerable credit for the success of the Saturday night venture is due the committee that arranged it—Emil Hasenstab, general chairman, Jane Agnew, Tony Mastern and Albert Grievens.

Hasenstab Toastmaster
Following the serving of the dinner, Hasenstab assumed the role of toastmaster and the "Flying Dutchman" as he is affectionately called, handled the job in a manner that stamps him an enviable "MC". He had everybody in stitches with his ready wit and drolle humor as he announced the various prizes for the next bowling season.

There was no speaking program, the banquet being unique and enjoyable to this extent. But Davis, president of the Shepoco club was introduced but did not speak.

Accepting awards for their valor on the bowling alleys were the following: Junior, Shonko co-captains Mike Budai and Harry Wymann, of the championship team; Bill Rech, captain of the runner-up Decorating Foremen team; high average for the season, Johnny Plano, 143.3; second high average season, Bill Rech, 142; high single game for season, Shimmy Balla, 248; high three games for season, Mrozek; team high single game, Jigger Shop, 822; high three games, Jigger Shop, 2305. There were also a number of awards given for the winners in the Shenango Pottery annual bowling tournament in which both the men and women participated.

Enjoy Magic-Hypnotism
As the concluding feature of the evening's event the assembled bowlers marveled as Dr. Walter Beberich of Westminster college unfolded his tricks of magic that had everybody astounded, and then finished with his famous hypnotic acts using four men and two women as subjects. He got a big hand for his work and the Pottery bowlers went away shaking their heads in amazement, and the subjects can't figure out yet what happened to them while in a hypnotic spell.

It was a party that will not be forgotten for some time to come, and the Pottery bowlers are eagerly looking ahead to next season on the hardwood and another "big party" as only Emil can stage them.

Moose Club Edges Duca D'Abruzzis

In a game replete with misfires, 13 to be exact, the Moose club edged the Duca D'Abruzzis Sunday at Marshall field, 7 to 6, with Bill Barbato winning a mound duel from F. Cook and Hughes. The Moose won in the tenth inning. Barbato fanned 10 Dukes.

Louis And Conn Finish Training

Principals In Championship Bout Will Weigh In Wednesday At Noon

By LAWTON CARVER
(International News Service Sports Editor)
NEW YORK, June 17.—(INS)—Joe Louis, wearer of the heavy-weight crown for nine years, and Billy Conn, foremost contender through half of that record reign, reached the end of training today for the biggest sports event of these times.

Both were scheduled to go through final sparring sessions late this afternoon with their battered and weary sparring partners.
Then the big, hard-hitting champion and the little, light-tapping but fast challenger will loaf more or less in seclusion until the going sends them against each other before an expected crowd of 75,000 at Yankee Stadium Wednesday night.

Await Opening Bell
This final session was designed chiefly to maintain the razor sharp edge they have sought in grueling early morning workout, late afternoon boxing and all manner of workouts in between.

After today, they will confine their activities to light limbering up either at their camps or in New York, depending upon exactly when they break camp.

They will weigh-in at 12:30 Wednesday, eat their last meals before the bout soon thereafter and sweat it out from then on the zero hour of 10 o'clock P. M. (EDT).

Protect Your Car Against Rust
The underbody of your car is where rust is most active. Seldom do you see the underside rust is making on these metal parts that are so necessary to protect unless you "get out and get under." You can prevent further action of rust on those parts by having Hite Bros. give the underside of your car an application of 3-M Underbody Protective Coating. It pays to protect what you can't replace.

Pirates-Phillies Draw Big Crowd

Report 38,074 Fans Watch Lowly Phils And Bucs Play And Split Twin Bill

YANKS GAIN ON FALTERING BOSOX

By PAT ROBINSON

(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, June 17.—The Phils, although still in last place, drew an all-time record for their Philadelphia yesterday—38,074—with the sixth place Pirates. The fans apparently appreciate what the club is doing.

For a while they were actually out of last place—and the Giants were in—as the result of the first game of doubleheaders. The Phils took the opener from the Bucs, 4-3, but dropped the nightcap, 10-1. The Giants lost the first game to the Cards, 4-1, but won the second, 9-1.

The Cardinals fell three games back on the Dodgers who beat the Cubs, 4-2, on Dixie Walker's hitting and Kirby Higbe's pitching.

The Reds received a double setback from the Braves, 2-1 and 2-0.

Red Sox Split

The Red Sox saw another game clipped off their long lead when they could get no better than an even break with the White Sox while the Yanks were winning two from the Browns.

The Red Sox took the first, 6-1 but dropped the second, 7-4. Bobby Doerr got a homer in each game. The Yanks overpowered the Browns, 9-2, and then won 10 heats to take the second, 7-5.

Bob Feller had to go 11 innings to earn his 11th victory. He gave the A's six hits and fanned nine and won, 2 to 1. The Indians then beat the Athletics again 3-2, in a six inning game halted by rain.

The Senators snapped a six game losing streak by taking the Tigers, 6 to 3.

Bessemer Has Top Mound Staff

It is an old baseball axiom that pitching alone won't win league pennants, but just the same it is a great comfort to a manager to be able to name any one of a number of twirlers to work a game and be assured they will acquit themselves well.

Manager "Jim" Martin of the Bessemer Cementers is in just such a position in the County league. Joe Jovial Jim has six chuckers who have walked off the hill winners this season, one of them a three-time winner and three of them with dual victories. Wampum, under the guidance of "Bud" Wardman, has a half dozen also but their totals aren't quite as fat as the Cement City twirlers.

Hardesty Is Ace

Harry "Lefty" Hardesty, probably the best southpaw flinger in the loop, is the driver of the Cementers staff, with a record of three wins and two losses. Behind him are Paul Johnson (2-2), Glenn Stanley (2-2) and W. Anderson (2-0). Evanich and Tomasello each own one win.

Such solid pitching is keeping the Martin men in the thick of the fight for the flag. The Cementers have been dropping tough games during the past two weeks, and it hasn't been because of hurling trouble. Most of the losses were of the bue and two run variety, which a timely hit would have turned the other way.

True, New Galilee has Clerid and Imman with four wins each; the Elks have their ace in Tommy Beatrix; Castlewood has 'Bud' Henderson and Wampum has two wins in Powell and Wardman. But with "one-man" pitching staffs, which can go wrong if that ace falls.

That's why Beatrix, with a substantial crew of moundmen, is taking a long look ahead in the loop race and counting on their over-all talent to prevail down the home stretch.

SAXON JUNIORS IN CONVENTION

Two-Day Convention Is Held Here
Over Week-End; Officers Named

Convened for the first time since 1942, due to the war, the national convention of the Transylvanian Saxon Juniors' association held a two-day convention here Saturday and Sunday and named officers for the coming year. All sessions of the convention, as well as the social events, were held at the summer camp of the Eintracht Singing society, on the Shenango river.

About 400 delegates and guests were present, including young men and women from cities in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan. From Saturday afternoon to Sunday evening a full program was enjoyed, including convention activities, dinners, dancing and softball.

Re-Elect Henry Schindler
Henry Schindler of Cleveland, west, was re-elected national president of the T. S. J. A. Henry Holmes of Farrell was named vice president; Catherine Goetzmeister of Columbus, O. secretary; Elsie Fleisher of Cleveland, west, assistant secretary, and Edith Bodendorfer of New Castle, treasurer.

Henry Binder, president of the New Castle chapter of the T. S. J. A., was the convention chairman, and with his aides prepared and discharged a program of events that was a pleasure to the delegates. The camp on the Shenango had been improved, and despite the damage of the recent flood it was in excellent condition. A new dining hall has been built, all wood-work has been painted and flood-lights installed for night events. With it all, the weather was fine with the exception of rain which fell late Sunday night.

A T. S. J. A. chorus was organized to go to Cleveland on Labor Day, a golf tournament was planned for Canton, O., and Cleveland, west, gets the annual semi-formal dance. The bowling tournament was awarded to Columbus, O. The usual basketball league will be functioning in the fall and winter.

Meals for the delegates and guests were planned and prepared on Saturday by the women of the Eintracht, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Christ Ungar, and on Sunday under the chairmanship of Mrs. George Heitsch.

LAST OF FIVE FUGITIVES IS BEING SOUGHT

LEWISTOWN, Pa., June 17.—(INS)—State police from Lewistown sub-station were searching today for 22-year-old George F. Sholter, of Blair county, last of five fugitives from the Rockview penitentiary near Bellefonte.

Sholter was asleep in the back of a Packard sedan stolen at State College when two companions who had fled the prison were trapped by a police posse on a dead-end road near Lewistown, police reported. The trio escaped from the penitentiary June 11 when a severe electrical storm damaged an electrically-charged fence surrounding part of the prison. Apprehended by police in the trap were Clarence Thornton, 25, and Robert Bendon, 19, both of Philadelphia. Two other fugitives were nabbed shortly after they escaped Friday.

SCHOLARSHIP WON BY BETHEL PASTOR

Rev. R. Marshall Wilson, pastor of the Bethel U. P. church, near Enon Valley, was awarded the Jane Hogg Gardner scholarship at the annual commencement exercises at Pittsburgh-Kenia Seminary at Pittsburgh last week.

Rev. Wilson, who received his diploma from the school in 1945, graduated cum laude.

HELD ON BURGLARY CHARGE

PITTSBURGH, June 17.—(INS)—John Fullerton, 24, of Pittsburgh, was detained by police today on a burglary charge allegedly attempting to rob Commando Kelly's gas station.

Police picked up Fullerton when they saw him lurking around the congressional medal of honor winner's service station. A bag containing $54.82 was found in the grease pit. Police claimed Fullerton threw it there just before he was arrested.
